==========

Higher education institutions must evolve into institutions capable of accommodating diverse learners, flexible pathways, and recurring cycles of upskilling and reskilling in an ever-changing educational landscape. In this context, IQAC with the college management has organized this Academic Staff Orientation which aligns with these educational frameworks to empower us as educators to meet emerging challenges with confidence and competence.

Day 1

The Two-Day Academic staff orientation commenced with a prayer song followed by the ceremonial lighting of the kuthuvilakku.

Dr. Francis Xavier, IQAC Coordinator, delivered the welcome address and formally welcomed the gathering. The inaugural session was graced by the Reverend Fathers, Deputy Principal, and faculty members.

Rev. Dr. Antony Robinson, SJ, Rector, addressed the gathering and highlighted seven key dimensions crucial to higher education institutions: Academics, Technology, , Mental Wellness, Employability, Startups and Placements.

Rev. Dr. D. Thomas Alexander, SJ, Secretary and Correspondent, emphasized the significance of gratitude in personal and professional life and welcomed the newly elected officials and faculty members and briefed the staff about the introduction of the LRMS and a few new developments and changes for the upcoming year.

Rev. Dr. A. Louis Arockiaraj, SJ, Principal, underscored the importance of academic excellence, intellectual growth, skill enhancement and cultivating an open mindset.

Mr. Joseph Arociakasamy, Deputy Principal, extended his greetings and welcomed the faculty members for the new academic year.

The inaugural session concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Dorothy Pushparani, Assistant IQAC Coordinator.

Session 5

Topic: Embedding Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in Governance and Academic Practices

Resource Person: Dr. Sultan Ahmed Ismail, Member, State Planning Commission, Government of Tamil Nadu

Dr. Sultan Ahmed Ismail delivered an inspiring and thought-provoking session on integrating Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into higher education governance and academic practices. He emphasized the crucial role of educational institutions in promoting sustainable development through teaching, research, community engagement, and institutional policies. The session highlighted the significance of SDG 2 (End Hunger) ,SDG 11 (Sustainable Cities and Communities), SDG 12 (Responsible Consumption and Production), SDG 13 (Climate Action), and SDG 15 (Life on Land), illustrating how these goals can be incorporated into academic programmes and campus initiatives.

The resource person stressed the importance of environmental stewardship, responsible resource utilization, biodiversity conservation, and climate-conscious decision-making. He encouraged faculty members to act as change agents by fostering sustainability awareness among students and integrating SDG-oriented perspectives into their curriculum and outreach activities. The session provided valuable insights into sustainable practices and inspired faculty members to integrate SDG principles into academic, administrative, and community engagement activities.

Stream-wise Presentations and Departmental Discussions

Following the lunch break, faculty members proceeded to their respective venues for stream-wise presentations and deliberations. Department-wise moderators were assigned to facilitate the deliberations and guide the discussions in a structured manner.

The discussions centred on the following key themes:

1. Strengthening Academic Culture: Exploring ways to promote intellectual depth, excellence in teaching, research, innovation, and student accompaniment while remaining aligned with Loyola College's institutional values and mission.
2. Responding to Gen Z Learners and Emerging Technologies: Identifying practices that faculty members can adopt to model academic integrity, inclusivity, ethical use of Artificial Intelligence (AI), and a commitment to lifelong learning in an evolving educational landscape.
3. Departmental Initiatives for 2026–27: Proposing specific initiatives to foster collaboration, social responsibility, student success, and academic excellence, thereby contributing meaningfully to the College's vision and strategic goals.

Faculty members actively participated in the discussions, sharing their experiences, perspectives, and innovative ideas. The sessions were highly interactive, insightful, and productive, generating valuable recommendations for enhancing academic quality, strengthening institutional effectiveness, and fostering a culture of continuous improvement across departments.
