

Fresher's Day Celebration 2019-2020

Prof. Daniel Augustus, Director-LIAC was the chief guest for the fresher's day, he addressed the first year students and extended his warm welcome to the department

The second year students entertained their juniors through energetic dance performance and light music. The first year students had a good time and they were able to establish a good healthy relationship with their seniors.