Report on Do you have the skills to take on tomorrow?

The Department of Business Administration conducted a guest lecture on the topic “Do you have the skills to take on tomorrow?” on the 10th of October 2022 at Lawrence Sundaram Hall, Loyola College from 4.30 pm to 6.30 pm. The objective of the lecture was to help the Students of the BBA Department to get a better understanding of the skills the students will need to acquire in the future. According to a report by World Economic Forum's Future of Jobs, 50% of all employees will need reskilling by the year 2025, as the adoption of technology is constantly increasing.

Critical thinking and problem-solving top the list of skills employers believe will grow in prominence in the next five years. Newly emerging this year are skills in self-management such as active learning, resilience, stress tolerance, and flexibility. Respondents to the Future of Jobs Survey estimate that around 40% of workers will require reskilling of six months or less. Mr. Vishnu Premkumar, III BBA, delivered the welcome address. The chief guest of the event, Dr. Nirmalraj, HR Learning and Development Specialist, Ford India Private Limited, Chennai was felicitated by Dr. N.C. Martin, Vice President, Department of Business Administration Forum. Then, the chief guest was introduced by Dr. D Babin Dhas, Assistant Professor Department of Business Administration.

Then, Dr. Nirmalraj presided over the lecture. He spoke about the future of the corporate world, motivation, leadership and the skills of the future. Greater adoption of technology will mean in-demand skills across jobs change over the next five years, and skills gap will continue to be high. For those workers who stay in their roles, the share of core skills that will change by 2025 is 40%, and 50% of all employees will need reskilling. Critical thinking and problem-solving top the list of skills that employers believe will grow in prominence in the next five years. These have been consistent since the first report in 2016. But newly emerging this year are skills in self-management such as active learning, resilience, stress tolerance and flexibility.

A question-and-answer session was held for a few minutes and the guest lecture ended a feedback session.

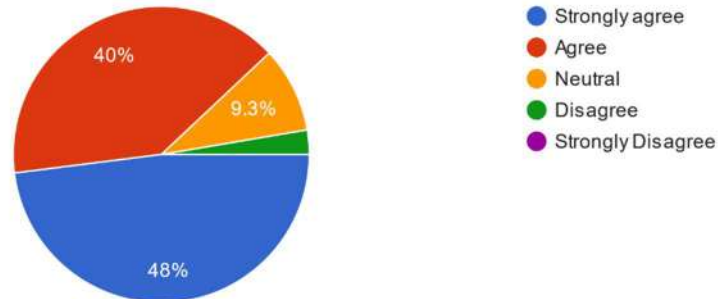

The Vote of Thanks was given by Devanshu Roongta, followed by the National Anthem.
