

LOYOLA COLLEGE, CHENNAI-600034
LOYOLA BRASS BAND
(LBB 2010-2020)

ANNUAL REPORT (2019-2020)

Loyola Brass Band is one of the main clubs of Loyola College devoted for the students who are really interested in playing the brass band instruments. The aim of the club is to encourage students for holistic formation in brass band and to create community within the class room, college as well as within the national and global community. Loyola Brass Band is known for its performances in each official program of the College beginning from welcoming the chief guests by giving band salute to the end of the program by playing the National Anthem. In this academic year 38 students are in the club and the practices are given to the students at least twice a month in average. The club creates interest among the students to develop their musicianship as a team of band.

Trumpets, Euphoniums, Saxophones, Bass drums, side drums are some instruments usually played by the members of the club. The instruments are properly maintained in the room allotted for the club. Students involve in the events of the band with a team spirit.

Activities of the club

Usually the performances of the band can be shown in all the major official programs conducted by the College such as Ovations (an intra-departmental cultural competition), Teachers' day, Sports day, Graduation day, Students' union day and College day. The band also performs in the Independence Day and the Republic day of our nation. The Loyola Brass Band also has linkages with other units of the Loyola campus namely, LICET and Loyola College of Education in their Sports day parades, Graduation day celebrations and College day celebrations. On the request, the Loyola Brass Band performs in other surrounding colleges in their official programs.

In this year the Loyola Brass Band performed in the 73rd Independence Day of India, the 71st Republic Day of India, the 13th Annual Sports Day of Loyola College of Education, the 95th Annual Sports Day of Loyola College, the 10th Annual Sports Day of LICET, the 92nd Graduation Day of Loyola College, the Students' union Day and the 95th College Day of Loyola College.
