

ANNUAL REPORT (2022-2023)

About the club

Loyola Brass Band is one of the main clubs of Loyola College devoted for the students who are really interested in playing the brass band instruments. The aim of the club is to encourage students for holistic formation through brass band and to create community within the classroom, College and of course indirectly within nation and the world. Loyola Brass Band is known for its performances in every official function of the College such as Graduation Day, Annual day and etc. In every such function our band welcomes the chief guests by giving band salute and honours to them through performance. In the academic year 2022-2023, there were 77 students (both shift-1 and shift-2) in the club including 26 first year students. The club creates interest among the students to develop their musicianship as a team of band.

Brass instruments

Trumpets, Euphoniums, Saxophones, Bass drums, side drums are some instruments usually played by the members of the club. The instruments are properly maintained in the room allotted for the club. Students involve in the events of the band with a team spirit and unity.

Regular activities of LBB

- Usually, Loyola Brass Band performs in all the major official programs conducted by the College such as Teachers' Day, Sports day, Ovations (an inter-departmental cultural competition), Graduation Day, Students' Union Day, College Day and etc.
- The band also performs in the Independence Day and the Republic Day of our nation. The Loyola Brass Band also has linkages with other units of the Loyola campus namely, LICET and Loyola College of Education in their Sports day parades, Graduation Day celebrations and College Day celebrations.
- On request, the Loyola Brass Band performs in other surrounding colleges in their official programs.
- Practices will be given to the students regularly in the band room.
