INTERNATIONAL DAY OF YOGA (IDY- 2020) REPORT

21st June, 2020

About International Day of Yoga:

On December 11 in 2014, the United Nations General Assembly declared June 21st as the International Day of Yoga. Yoga embodies unity of mind and body; thought and action; restraint and fulfillment; harmony between man and nature; a holistic approach to health and well-being. It is not about exercise but to discover the sense of oneness with yourself, the world and the nature”. The theme of this year International Day of Yoga is ‘GharGhar me Yog’ or “Yoga at home and yoga with family” which signifies the importance of staying at home and practice Yoga with family while observing social distancing. Staying at home would keep you away from contagious Corona virus and Yoga would help keep you and your family in good health.

(Ministry of Ayush)

Loyola College (Autonomous), Chennai – 600 034 organized the International Day of Yoga underlining the theme ‘GharGhar me Yog’ prescribed by Ministry of Ayush on Sunday, 21st June, 2020. Students of various clubs (NCC – Army, Navy & Airforce, NSS, Prolife, Sports, etc.,) were encouraged to register and take part in the International Day of Yoga. Almost 500+ enthusiastic students and their family members registered themselves in the Ayush website.
