Orientation on Modalities of using Loyola College Central Library

PG & Research Department of Commerce organised a one-week Orientation Program on the Modalities of using Loyola College Central Library for its UG and PG students from 9th May to 17th May 2022 at forenoon.

The students were warmly received by Rev. Dr. A. Maria Augustine S.J, Library Director, Loyola College Central library and the other library staff. Dr. M. Parthiban, Librarian, Loyola College Central library, oriented the undergraduate and post-graduate students with the facilities available in the library. He shared his expertise in using the e-resources available to the students at the college through the library. He also mentioned the procedure to be followed by the students while entering and using the resources available in the central library.

One student in each class was given hands-on experience in using the e-Resources available for searching the e-articles, e-Book, and e-magazines.

Following is the schedule for the orientation program organised:

Date	Class	Time
9 th May 2022	2 nd B.Com A Section	10.05 am to 11 am.
10 th May 2022	2 nd B.Com B Section	10.05 am to 11 am

19 th May 2022	3 rd B.Com A Section	10.05 am to 11 am

Following are the feedback received from the students on the orientation program:

- Students of second-year undergraduate mentioned that the orientation program created awareness in them about the availability of digital e-magazines.
- The availability of plenty of literature and e-content helps them in undertaking any research.
- Availability of study materials and reference books serves as a ready reckoner for semester examinations.
- Availability of past ten years' question papers helps in preparation for exams.
- Availability of global standard books free of cost to the students at the college is a great benefit to the students.

Students of the Department thanked the resource person Dr. M. Parthiban for sharing his insights on the facilities and the resources available in the central library.

The orientation proved to be highly informative, motivating and useful for the students and the department sincerely thanks Rev. Dr. A. Maria Augustine S.J, Library Director and the other staff of the library.

The program was organised by Ms. A. Leena Mercy, Convenor and coordinated by the Organising Secretary Dr. S. Sridevi.
