

Inauguration of the Book Club

For 93 years, Loyola College whose motto is “Let Your Light Shine” was void of a book club. Thus the Department of English Shift II gave birth to a brand new club on 26th of July 2019. The coordinator of LISSTAR and the Dean of the School of Human Excellency Dr. Bernard D’ Sami graced the occasion and inaugurated the Book Club in the presence of professors and voracious student readers. The club was christened as “Liber Amantes”. The club faculty President Dr. Arockia Anto Anita delivered the inaugural address. The chief guest of the day Dr. Sami inspired students and motivated them to read books. He then gave a detailed review of the book “The Making of the Mahatma” written by Dr. Chandran S Devanesan, the first Indian Principal of MCC College. The event ended with Ashwin Kumar Kispotta, student Vice-President of the club proposing the Vote of Thanks. Students and Professors were awe-struck by the books kept on display.

