

Workshop on Writing Research Proposals at UG Level

A workshop on Writing Research Proposals and Dissertations for English Language and Literature was conducted for the final year students of the Department of English on June 17, 2019. Prof. Marian Cassion Anand, Assistant professor of English, LICET, Chennai handled workshop session very effectively.

The event was started with a prayer song followed by the welcome and introductory note by Dr. Arockia Anto Anita, Assistant Professor of English, Shift II. Dr. Anita insisted the importance and the need of research in the field of English language and Literature. The theme of the workshop was to give an idea on hwe to write a research proposal, the important requirements and procedures to be followed and the effective methods to get our proposal sanctioned. Then, the students had a practical session in which they wrote a summary on the topic given by the expert. This was followed by the evaluation session. The program came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Mr.Manoj .A. Marlon (B.A., III English).