Loyola English Department Alumni Meet 2018

Loyola Alumni Day was organized on August 5, 2018. A number of alumni/e participated in the Departmental interaction. It was found fruitful for both the staff and members of Department alumni/e. It was a nostalgic moment for many and they shared their views that they should continue to collaborate with the department and contribute in turn for what they have received from the college.