REPORT ON WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY 2021 CELEBRATIONS

Introduction:

Annually world social work day is celebrated on the third Tuesday of March. This year it falls on 16th March 2021. On this day, social workers stand together to advance the common message globally. This year the theme highlights Ubuntu: I am Because We Are- Strengthening Social Solidarity and global connectedness. It is a concept and philosophy that resonates with the social work perspective of inter connectedness of all peoples and their environments. It speaks to the need for global solidarity and also highlights indigenous knowledge and wisdom.

Social Work Day 2021 at Loyola College:

On 16th March the Department of Social work observed the "World Social Work Day". Dr. Rohini Krishnan, Former Senior Social Welfare officer, Government Stanley Medical College was the chief guest for the event. She greeted and addressed the students highlighting the need and scope of social work. She motivated the students to create a space for professional social workers and establish professional identity.
