

AIESEC

AIESEC is the international platform for young people to discover and develop their potential. Every year, the students of AIESEC's Loyola College Unit work harder towards realizing that goal.

The year started off under the stewardship of Harish Rajan, a former student of the college.

Ashok Antony, third year B.Com student, Rishabh Goyal, second year B.Com Student, Keshav Rajendran, second year Economics students and Krishna Gupta, second year B.Com student are the four students out of the - five member Core Organising Committee team of AIESEC India's June National Conference 08, held at Pondicherry. Delegates from 14 cities and international delegates from countries like Mauritius, Poland, Russia, Kenya, Ivory Coast, Brazil and Pakistan. 15 students from our college also participated in the conference which saw workshops by companies like Google, Standard Chartered and Suzlon.

Students from our college also participated in National Leadership Development Seminar held in Silvassa in September.

The students were Navin Dorai and Krishna Gupta, both second year B.Com students participated in the Annual Stakeholders Dinner held at Taj Coromandel.

Abhijit Sunder is elected the new president. He along with Keshav Rajendran, has been selected to participate in a meeting in Mumbai which will see participation from various heads of industries including Mr Ratan Tata and Mr. Adi Godrej Nishan Goenka, a former Economics student of our college has been selected for an internship in Germany.

He will be heading the Market Expansion of a German company into India.