

ALL INDIA CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY FEDERATION, ENGLISH UNIT REPORT FOR THE YEAR 2009 – 2010

All India Catholic University Federation is a movement looks forward to society where there is discrimination, separation and victimization and so work to create a network to counter the existing social system.

All the students who joined AICUF have actively participated in the movement. In July, the entire AICUF freshers saw the inauguration of the movement 2009-2010. The orientation talks by Prof. L. Selvanathan, Faculty Advisor made the fresh Aicufers to become strong and experienced in AICUF. Fr. Arul Ravi, S. J., the State Advisor of AICUF visited our unit in the month of August.

Our unit arranged serious of sessions on topics such as AICUF history, constitution, social reality, social analysis and so on. These sessions enabled the Aicufers to understand the purpose of AICUF for the students to know where to move ahead with the movement.

Ms. Diana, the Full Timer of AICUF National Secretariat, spoke on Aims and Objectives of AICUF where she picturized the history of AICUF.

A special talk on 'Indian Villages, A Reality', arranged with the Loyola Outreach Department, a treasure of their experience to AICUF members.

Fr. Henry Jerome S.J, the National Advisor of AICUF is an inspiring personality, gave a lecture on village reality with an analysis of our society.

Talks on Sri Lankan Issues created a kind of pain in the hearts and Aicufers in showing their protest on the main road by having a human chain jointly with the Students Union and other Clubs and Organizations. Documentary films were screened on Sri Lanka and IDP.

These sessions, talks and classes were the boost to the students to go forward with the movement. Many experienced speakers met the Aicufers members and shared their views. Protests, Dialogue, Human Chain, and Posters Campaign are part of our programmes. AICUF English unit students represented in the Aicuf State seminars at Trichy and Villupuram programmes and at the national level.

To share peace, love and brotherhood, as a family we celebrated Christmas. Many of the Aicuf members are facilitated to have a concern about the society and environment they are living without fear and favour.

At the end, it is said the dream, which became reality, is the result of commitment, hard work and participation of each Aicufers.
