

NCC NAVY

Loyola NCC Navy is known for setting greater records and newer trend. The following are the sample activities to prove this truth.

TRAINING

The academic year 2006-07 started with the enrollment from as many as 250 applicants who aspire to be trained in NCC Navy activities in the college and use them as a launch pad to become commissioned officers in the Armed Forces. The prestigious title for any NCC Navy cadet is Senior Cadet Captain awarded by 1 TN NCC Navy. As the tradition goes, this year also a Loyolite, R. Manoj Kumar of NCC Navy bagged the Title.

ACHIEVEMENTS

YEP SINGAPORE

Sc R. Manoj kumar, a student of III Economics, who earlier participated in All India Republic Day Parade last year, represented the nation as the youth ambassador of India to Singapore. He also experienced the following rare activities - firing using US made M16 rifles, Rappelling, fly fox, paintball, CAI computer aided instructions, dragon boat, kayaking, etc for a period of 14 days.

NAVAL CRUISE TO SINGAPORE, PUKET AND SRI LANKA

Cadet Captain Aran Jagarious of final year B.Com student was selected to participate in the sea training programme to three countries namely Singapore, Puket and Sri Lanka. He also visited Andaman Islands during this course. He stayed with the cadets of the Indian Navy who are just going to be commissioned as officers. He sailed on board INS TIR thorough out the course of 30 days.

REPUBLIC DAY CAMP (RDC)

All India Republic Day Camp held at new Delhi during the month of January is considered as a prestigious camp for all NCC cadets. Two of our cadets namely Mahesh Kumar of II year chemistry student and Vignesh of II year B.Com student of self financed sections participated in RDC.

NAUSAINIK CAMP 2006

All India Nausainik camp held at Vishakapattam is a camp, which consists of water borne activities and competitions only for naval cadets. This year three of our second year naval cadets attended. They are Johnson and Khulandai Jueauraj II year students of day college participated in Tamil Nadu pulling team. Jude Jeromine another second year Mathematics student represented Tamilnadu, Pondicherry and Andaman and Nicobar directorate for firing competition.

NATIONAL INTEGRATION CAMP, DELHI 2006

C.Thomas Fernando and R Amos were the part of NIC (National Integration Camp) held in Delhi representing the Tamilnadu Directorate and they got orientation to the exposure of cultural activities held in Delhi.

SHIP ATTACHMENT CAMP, MUMBAI 2006

Loyola college Navy cadets also attended the ship attachment camp held at Bombay. Purushothaman and Amos of third year students had the privilege of having stayed in the one and only aircraft carrier of India, INS Virat.

TREKKING CAMP 2006

Trekking camp held in Maharashtra accommodated a few of our cadets who campaigned there for fifteen days by crossing the limit of 300 kilometers.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Loyola NCC Navy is not only known for its achievements but they are also well known for their social service activities. They prove themselves to be the men for others combined with bravery.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Loyola NCC Navy in collaboration with lions club, Perambur conducted the blood donation camp on 26 6 2006 and successfully collected 127 units of blood. Many journalists and the public appreciated this noble gesture.

HUMAN CHAIN CUM SIGNATURE CAMPAIGN FOR WORLD PEACE

As the world is facing a grim problem namely war and violence, Loyola NCC Navy felt the need for demonstrating the values of peace and harmony to the world. As a result, the unit organized a Human chain cum signature programme and sent the Canvas to the President of India Dr. A.P.J. Abdul kalam.

VISIT TO THE HOME FOR THE AGED

It was a different experience for the Cadets to visit Karunai Illam and show their solidarity to the old and the destitute. They sponsored tea and donated Rs. 3000 and it was a solace to them as it was considered a rare gesture from young cadets.

VISIT TO THE ORPHANAGE

They visited the orphanage on 14 Dec. 2006 and entertained the children and showed them the generosity with supply of daily usage items of worth rupees 3000. They enjoyed each and every movement of their visit and sensitized their mind and resolved to help the abandoned in the future wherever they are.

CYCLE RALLY

A usual prestigious cycle rally in collaboration with SARRL, an NGO from Chennai to Mahamallapuram about 48kms was organized to expose the cadets to physical fitness activity. The theme of our rally was to abolish child labor.

AIDS AWARENESS RALLY

Cadets took part in Aids Awareness Rally conducted by NCC Units and created awareness among the public who have assembled in Marina Beach. It was a great success as it was organized on a grand scale with the issue of pamphlets.

We place in record the guidance and support of Sub.Lt. K S Antonysamy towards the record breaking and eventful activities of NCC Navy this year also.