

AIESEC

This year has been one of the most successful years for AIESEC Loyola unit in the past 24 years of AIESEC's association with Loyola College. AIESEC Chennai Chapter's association with Loyola has been acknowledged by the National Committee of AIESEC India in many ways. The AIESEC Loyola Unit currently holds 48 members from both Aided and Self-supporting shift. The year 2007-08 ran under the presidency of Shezaan Hamid, a student of the Evening Shift (commerce department) of Loyola College. The following are the activities that Loyola students participated and organized:

AIESEC INDIA JUNE NATIONAL CONFERENCE:

Students of Loyola College attended a National Conference hosted by AIESEC India in Agra. The conference included the discussions of operations at Local Levels. National Partners which include Coca cola India, Maersk, KPMG, Accenture, HSBC, ABN Amro, Cry, Vidyasagar were present at the conference who conducted various seminars and workshops for the delegates. AIESEC Chennai was appreciated and acknowledged for their association with Loyola College on the immense support that the college has provided for its students to participate in activities and events hosted by AIESEC. 20 students from Loyola College were present for this event.

EURO LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR:

Shezaan Hamid (3rd Year, B.Com Evening shift) attended an International Conference held in Serbia. International Partners which include PWC, DHL, Cadbury Schwepps,

EMPOWER:

Empower was an event organized by AIESEC Chennai chapter, where competition was held on the basis of a mock UN model. The event was presided by Mr. Karthi. P. Chidambaram, soil of Finance minister P. Chidambaram. An informal team comprising of students from Loyola College won the 1st prize and cash prizes worth Rs. 5000. The organizing committee president of the event was Rahul Bathija (2nd year, B.Com, Self Supporting)

AIESEC INDIA NATIONAL LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR:

Students of Loyola College attended a National Conference hosted by AIESEC India in Jaipur in September. The conference included panel discussions, workshops, activities and reflection sessions on Leadership. National partners which include Reliance, UBS and Maersk were present to conduct sessions on Leadership. 40 students from Loyola College were present at the conference.

ANNUAL STAKEHOLDERS DINNER:

AIESEC Chennai Chapter organized an Annual Stakeholders Dinner in Hotel Park Sheraton. The chief Speaker was Mr. C. K. Ranganathan from Cavin Kare. There were representatives from close to 200 companies present at the event. The topic was 'The relevance of Multicultural Work environment in the Global Market today'. The organizing committee president of the event was Nishan Goenka (3rd Year, Economics, Self-supporting)

AIESEC INDIA NATIONAL STRATEGIC CONFERENCE:

Students of Loyola College attended a National Conference hosted by AIESEC India in Bangalore in November. The conference included the discussions of operations at Local Levels. National Partners which include Coca cola India, Maersk, KPMG, Accenture, HSBC, ABN Amro, Suzlon, UBS, Cry, Vidyasagar were present at the conference. They conducted various seminars and workshops for the delegates.

AIESEC GLOBAL VILLAGE 2007:

AIESEC Chennai Chapter organized an event of Global Village at Hotel Accord Metropolitan where 25 Foreign Nationals were present to display culture, dance, art, music and food from their various countries. The US Ambassador, Mr. David. T. Hopper was the chief guest of the event. The event was covered by Sun News, Star News, Kalaingar TV, and The Hindu. The event was very successful and acknowledged by the American Embassy for promoting Global Understanding. 30 students from Loyola College were present and organized the event.

CULTURAL ENVOY FOR EXCHANGE DEVELOPMENT:

Shrestha Prasad (1st Year, Economics, Day College) went as a Cultural Envoy representing India to Czech Republic and Poland. He visited different universities and colleges in Prague and Warsaw and struck partnerships with the AIESEC Chapters over there to promote the AIESEC Global Internship Program.

AIESEC INDIA NATIONAL CONGRESS 2008:

Students of Loyola College attended a National Conference hosted by AIESEC India in Chandigarh in January. The conference included panel discussions, workshops, activities and reflection sessions on Leadership. National partners which include Reliance, UBS, TiE, ISB, EonEcon and Suzlon were present to conduct sessions on Leadership. 4 students from Loyola College were present at the conference.

AIESEC CHENNAI CHAPTER PRESIDENT ELECTIONS:

Elections were held for the post of Local Committee President of AIESEC Chennai chapter. Harish Rajan (3rd Year, Economics, Day College Loyola) was elected the President for the year 2008-09. Harish Rajan was the head in-charge of the AIESEC Chennai Loyola Unit for the year 2007-08.

To conclude AIESEC Chennai Chapter and Loyola Unit had a very successful year and was recognized nationally by AIESEC India for all its activities. The year 2008-09 looks promising and students of Loyola Unit are eager to organize more such activities that would promote Global Understanding and World Peace.