The official Inaugural Function of LIVE was organized on 12th September 2011 in Lawrence Sundaram Auditorium at 4.00 PM. The auspicious occasion started with a prayer song by our Choir team. The welcome address was delivered by Rev. Dr. G. Joseph Antony Samy SJ, Director – LIVE, who gave a brief introduction about all dignitaries and was thankful to the Jesuit management for their unconditional support. Our traditional LAMP-LIGHTING ceremony was done by our honourable Chief Guest Dr. T. Devanathan, Rev. Fr. Secretary, Rev. Fr. Principal, Rev. Fr. Director and Deputy Director.

Rev. Fr. Secretary gave an inspiring speech highlighting the essential of vocational education and gave an example about Steve Jobs, Co-founder of Apple, Inc. Rev. Fr. Principal shared his experiences working with Rev. Fr. Director and Deputy Director and stressed the need of Vocational Education. He advocated the benefits of LIVE department which was instrumental in bringing alternative education to students enabling them to make a successful career. An ex-student Mr. Sylvester Puviarasu shared his experiences about LIVE.

Prof. J. Ranganathan, Co-ordinator, Tourism and Aviation introduced the Chief Guest of function, Dr. T. Devanathan, Chairman, Win TV to the audience. The Honorable chief guest gave detailed information about vocational courses and the benefits and urged Loyola management to continue their valuable service to the society.

Rev. Fr. Director felicitated the Chief Guest. Rev. Fr. Principal and Rev. Fr. Secretary, honoured him with a shawl and memento. Finally Prof. B. P. Jayachandran, Deputy Director, LIVE thanked the Loyola management for support and the teaching staff for their contribution to LIVE. He also appreciated the work of non-teaching staff and conveyed his thanks to the prayer song team.
