Over 2,000 turn up at Loyola College Alumni Day

It is important that a college nurtures the relationship and remains connected with its alumni members, said Rev. Louie Albert, Alumni Director, Loyola College. He was addressing over 2,000 alumni of the college at the Alumni Day celebrations on Sunday. College Principal Rev. A. Louis Arockiaraj urged the alumni members to continue to nurture the bond. With next year being the centenary year, an announcement was made about the construction of the Loyola Shyam Kothari Centenary Building for liberal arts. Rev. Antony Robinson, Rector, and Rev. B. Jeyaraj, Secretary, spoke. The alumni association honoured 65 retired professors.
