

Programme for widow's children

On 31st July 2007, the Department of Outreach organized a programme at Saulier Hall, Loyola college hostel, Chennai for the children of widows from the slum communities falling in zones of 5, 7 and 8. It was a programme for the children to support them on their studies by distributing study materials.

Rev. Fr. Xavier Vedam S.J, the Vice-Principal and Director of Outreach program, welcomed the chief guests and the Participants.

Chief Guest for the function was Mr.Nageswaran – the General Manager at Indian Oil Corporation. He distributed bags and note books to 120 children in the presence of Rev. Fr. Albert Muthumalai S.J, Principal-Loyola College, Chennai. The principal delivered the motivation talk for the children to take an interest in their studies and to do well.

The cultural programme was also a part of the function performed by the students themselves. Vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Beula, the Chief Coordinator of UG outreach Program.
