

LOYOLA COLLEGE [AUTONOMOUS]

College of Excellence

Chennai-600034

Department of B.Com.[Honours]

Presents

EVENTS

HERE WE GO!

Honours PD

Spotlight Spontaneity

Meme Creation

SCAN FOR RULEBOOK
& REGISTRATION

DATE : 13TH DECEMBER 2024

VENUE : 4TH FLOOR COMMERCE & ECONOMICS BUILDING

TIME: 8:30 A.M

LOYOLA COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), CHENNAI-34

Department of B.Com (Honours) Report on Imperium'24

The Department of B. Com (Honours) at Loyola College [Autonomous] hosted Imperium'24, its annual department festival, on December 13, 2024. This vibrant and intellectually stimulating event showcased a range of competitions designed to encourage creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration among students. With participation from renowned colleges across Chennai and other states, Imperium'24 proved to be a platform for showcasing diverse talents and fostering academic camaraderie.

Inauguration Ceremony

The day commenced with an inauguration ceremony held at the Conference Hall. The Chief Guest, Mr. T.G. Suresh, a distinguished Chartered Accountant, Cost Accountant, and Company Secretary, graced the occasion.

Known for his expertise in taxation, financial management, and corporate restructuring, Mr. Suresh inspired the audience with his motivational address. His journey as a mentor and professional left a lasting impression on the participants and organizers alike.

Competitions at Imperium'24

1. Spotlight Spontaneity

Spotlight Spontaneity was a three-round competition aimed at testing creativity, improvisation, and storytelling abilities. The rounds included:

Round 1: Quiz on Cinema

Participants demonstrated their knowledge of the cinematic world, answering questions related to films, actors, and cinematic history.

Round 2: Spin a Yarn

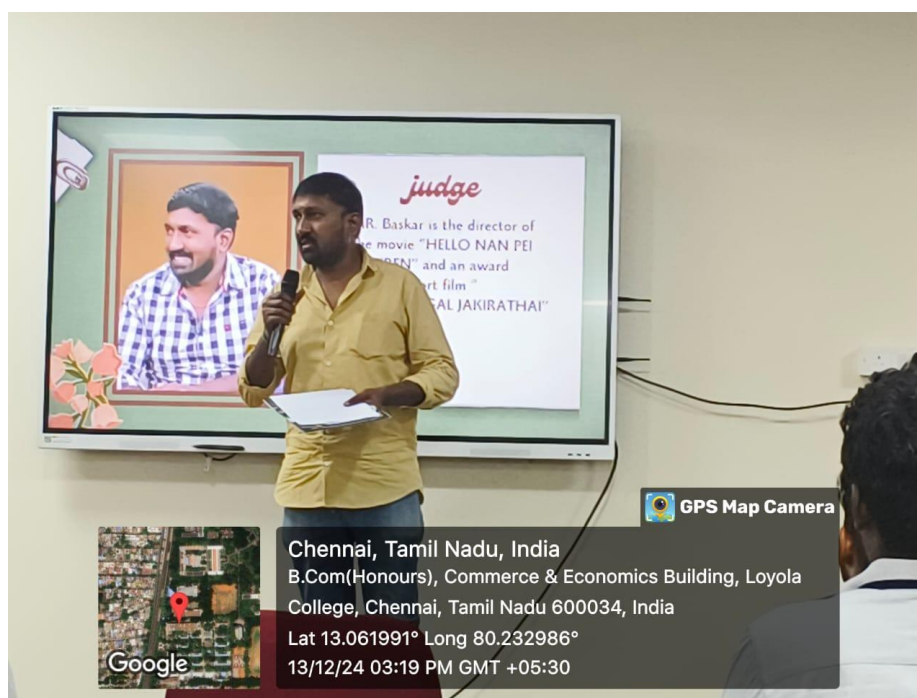

Contestants were given a prompt and had to weave a coherent and engaging story on the spot, emphasizing spontaneity and originality. Participants creativity and spontaneous building of prompts made the round 2 entertaining and energetic.

The round 2 of the event was judged by Mr. Rithick Bosco, he is a theatre performer and mime artist, known for his expertise in storytelling and stage performances.

Round 3: Future Director

Teams created and narrated their own unique movie concepts, highlighting their creative flair, scriptwriting, and presentation skills. Originality, feasibility, and budgetary considerations played a vital role in evaluations. The round 3 of the event was judged by Director Mr. Bhaskar S.

2. Here We Go! (Football Transfer Window)

This event was a strategic competition inspired by the football world. Participants were tested on their knowledge of football and their ability to manage transfers effectively. A Football Quiz as the first round to assess foundational knowledge. Teams picked football clubs and managed pre-existing squads. Players negotiated transfers while adhering to budgets and agents' guidelines.

Players negotiated transfers while adhering to budgets and agents' guidelines.

The entire event was dynamic, combining sports enthusiasm with financial acumen, and it was judged by Mr. Santhosh Kumar Raju, a professional with a keen interest in sports strategy.

3. Parliamentary Debate

The debate followed the British Parliamentary format, involving four teams—Opening Government, Closing Government, Opening Opposition, and Closing Opposition. Participants engaged in structured arguments on motions provided on the spot. Each speaker was evaluated on logical reasoning, presentation, and rebuttals.

This high-energy event was judged by Mr. Amrit Judge, a seasoned debater and orator with over 128 judging experiences in prestigious institutions, including IIT Madras and Loyola College.

Event Management and Documentation

The organizing committee ensured a smooth flow of events. Each venue was meticulously prepared, and participants were guided at every stage. Rules and regulations, including dress codes, ID verification, and punctuality, were communicated effectively. The attached rulebook served as a comprehensive guide, ensuring discipline and uniformity across all competitions.

Valedictory Ceremony

The event concluded with a valedictory function held in the Conference Hall. The Chief Guest, Ms. Rekha Dandey, addressed the audience, applauding their enthusiasm and efforts.

Trophies were distributed to winners, and all participants were appreciated for their active involvement. The organizing committee was commended for their dedication and teamwork.

Imperium'24 was a resounding success, reflecting the Department of B.Com (Honours) commitment to fostering academic and cultural excellence. The event proceeded seamlessly, thanks to the meticulous efforts of the professors, the B.Com (Honours) forum members, and the students of the department. Their dedication ensured flawless planning and execution. The energetic participation from students of various colleges brought vibrancy to the competitions, while the insights and expertise of the Chief Guest and judges enriched the experience for everyone involved. Imperium'24 not only celebrated creativity, intellectual rigor, and sportsmanship but also strengthened bonds within the academic community, leaving a lasting impact on all who participated.

