CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Department Christmas Celebration

The Christmas celebration was organized by the Department of Commerce on 22nd December 2022 at 10:00 AM. During the occasion, the Christmas wishes, and greetings was shared by the faculties and the students. The department choir carried the Christmas messages to all the classes and rendered the Christmas hymns and shared the joy of Christmas. Santa Claus cheered the students with sweets and the Christmas cakes were distributed to all the students and to the staff members.

Christmas Competition

The Department of Commerce participated in the Christmas Competition organised by the Loyola Campus Ministry with the collaboration of Loyola Students Council and the Office of the Deans of Students conducted three events namely – Cooking without fire, Crib Competition and Carol Competition. Under the guidance of Dr. Remigius Mary, our staff members and the students took part in all those events and exhibited their talents. Once again, the involvement of our students and our staff members was highly appreciated by the Department. Our students office bearers decorated the department to reveal the Christmas message through colourful posters, graceful crib and made the Christmas celebration, a meaningful one.
