DENARIUS '23 - 28TH JANUARY, 2023

ABOUT THE EVENT

28.01.2023

Venue: Bertram hall

Time: 9 am to 4 pm

INAUGURATION:

The inauguration of the Denarius 2022-23 was held at 9:00 a.m. in Bertram Hall and also made an update live on Instagram. The inaugural function began with a prayer – "Light of the World" to receive the blessings of the Lord Almighty and was followed by Thamizh Thaaai Vazhthu.

Mr. Vivin Joshua Godson, Joint Finance Secretary, introduced the chief guest Mr. Santhosh Sundaram to the gathering who has mastered in various fields. He's a proud alumnus of the 2007 Batch from the Department. He pursued a course in international marketing at Deakin University and also has done his MBA at Pondicherry University. He was also engaged in a course provided by IIM, Ahmedabad. He has 8 years and 11 months of experience as a director in PRO KARGO (INDIA) PRIVATE LIMITED in Chennai. He has also worked as Assistant Manager (Marketing & Client Servicing) in the same company. He has expertise in designing, developing websites, restructuring strategies, digital advertising, online marketing, etc. His primary role was to manage accounts and clients overseas for CITIBANK PVT LTD. And, for a period of 6 months, he worked as a creative consultant in BANANA BRAND WORKS PVT LTD., with numerous activities like managing accounts and business developing strategies. I'm glad to share his service as an agent in KINGFISHER AIRLINES for 7 months. He had to perform functions related to airlines, ticketing, arrival, departure, and passengers and crew at the airport.

Mr. Santhosh Sundaram, began his remarks by thanking the department of commerce and the students for inviting him and explained about how quickly time passed when he was at Loyola. The speaker emphasized that the lecturer advised students to utilize the importance of time management. Throughout his college life, Mr. Santhosh Sundaram went on to say that individuals will not exchange time with the prior generation, but the previous generation will be eager to trade time with the present generation since they have the time to establish a career in a lot more efficient manner. He then discussed the variables that influence professional development. Passion, curiosity, or duty were the primary factors that motivated someone to choose their field. This is the beginning of a career. Money is the second most important aspect. Money is what motivates people to work hard for their careers and progressively nurture them. Time is the third and last aspect of establishing a career. Subsequently, he gathered a lot of exposure in Entrepreneurship and begin with an idea and the creation of a firm around it. The speaker underlined that taking risks is a key component of entrepreneurship and that there is no reward without risk. He emphasized the notion that entrepreneurship is a holistic process while talking about the element of competition. It is always a positive thing when an entrepreneur gives back to the community and provides empowerment. He also made the point that every entrepreneur needs time to develop.

ABOUT DENARIUS 2023

REPORT ON HUMAN RESOURCE

10:30 am

CES 07 & CES 08

15 Teams

ABOUT THE EVENT:

Human resources (HR) are responsible for screening, recruiting, and training employees and implementing employee processes. HR departments are specifically responsible for managing a company's entire employee experience, from the moment an individual applies to a position to when they begin working there, and, finally, when they leave it. Finance is the lifeblood of all organizations but HR is the brain. The event Human resource was inspired by aspiring Human resource managers across the globe who are efficient and effective in managing the workforce that will strive for success by motivating and instilling the workforce. There were three rounds respectively in this event:

1. Structured confusion- Quiz
2. Resonate the swindle- Case study
3. Dopamine effect – Stress interview

JUDGES OF THE EVENT:

Ms. Keziah Evangeline V, Ms. Ranjeeka, Ms. Jaya Anjana. B. S. & Mr Dominic Britto

ROUND 1: STRUCTURED CONFUSION - QUIZ

In the first round, there was a mix of questions about human resources, puzzles, sports, and city-related topics. Because everyone has a different way of engaging with people, the quiz was created to see if the HR manager was aware of how he could connect with his employees. The HR manager must be knowledgeable person and must also keep himself updated in current events in the community, which can serve as a cause to interact with any local employees. And it worked; right after the results were announced, everyone had an interesting discussion.

VALEDICTORY OF THE DENARIUS 2023

The valedictory of denarius started at 4.30 p.m. in Bertram Hall with the prayer song by the Commerce department choir. The chief guests Mr. Arun & Mr. Aravind was introduced by Finance Secretary Annamalai C (20-UCO-219). The Chief Guests began their speech by establishing the idea that opportunities do not come & only one can create their identity & opportunities for themselves. The speakers then went on to thank the department for inviting them & appreciated the professionalism of the event. The guests then mentioned that one had to be respectful & sincere in what they were doing for being successful in that discipline or goal. Since we can't do any action without communication, they emphasized the need for effective communication skills and the significance of opportunities.

The speakers claimed that they were the perfect example of this and that their ability to communicate let them take advantage of every opportunity. The guests then invited the audience to name some values that were significant to them, after which they discussed the value of friendship. Being the first to start a conversation and having the ability to make others feel welcome are both crucial for forging relationships with the other party, according to chief guests. They introduced the evergreen idea of keeping one’s parents happy, as it is parents that provide everything for their children and many of the students in the audience wouldn’t be there without their parents. They also made students who lost their parent share their experiences on stage & deeply appreciated their mothers for all the support they gave their children. They emphasized the idea that a person's parents should serve as their primary source of motivation because of all the sacrifices they have made. Prof. V. R. Karthikeyan was individually honoured by the speakers because he had served as an associate director on their team. They also personally praised Mr. Jeevan, the master of the ceremony, for directing the event with such enthusiasm. The Chief Guests' final point in their lecture advised everyone not be afraid of anyone, if you want to experience happiness and not worry about what other people think, as their opinions are irrelevant to you. The winners of Denarius '23 were presented with their prizes by the guests.
