National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF)

Loyola College (Autonomous) is placed Sixth in All India Ranking - 2020

Ministry of Human Resources Development released National Institutional Ranking Framework - 2020 (NIRF) for higher educational institutions in India on June 11, 2020. Out of 1659 participating colleges, Loyola College (Autonomous), Chennai has been placed 6th Rank under the category of Colleges in India. The college has obtained the position based on the scores under parameters specified for the same with an overall score of 68.03. Out of 100, the college has got 64.59 in the parameter of Teaching, Learning & Resources (TLR), 91.70 in Research and Professional Practice (RP), 54.97 in Graduation (GO), 47.02 in Outreach and Inclusivity (OI) and 100 in Peer Perception (PP).

We are glad to receive the prestigious position in all India Ranking. The Jesuit Management places on record its gratitude to all members of Governing Council, officials of the college, academic staff, administrative staff, students, parents, alumni and well-wishers for the immense contribution and constant support. A special word of appreciation is due to Dr. Xavier Mahimairaj, Coordinator and Prof. K. D. Francis, Deputy Coordinator, IQAC for their meticulous planning in documentation. The management is proud of each and every one of you who have shouldered the responsibility in offering quality education to all deserving students. The recognition in the form of ranking from NIRF motivates the college to march ahead with the most disadvantaged for the service of the nation through socially relevant programme and research.
