

Loyola College (Autonomous)

Chennai – 600 034.

Thiru. S.X. Swamikannu Endowment Lecture

The Endowment Lecture was organized by the Department of English, Loyola College, at Yedannapalli Hall on March 4, 2016. The lecture commenced with a worship song by the department choir. Dr. Joseph Chandra, Head of the department welcomed the gathering. Prof. Christina introduced the Chief Guest to the audience Dr. Felix Moses, former Head of the department of English of Madras Christian College, Tambaram delivered the lecture on the topic 'Evolving changes in English Literary Studies.' The lecture revealed the changes in contemporary times dictated by growth in technology and social media.

HOD welcoming the Chief Guest Dr. Felix Moses

Dr. Felix Moses stated that there is a massive disconnection between the classroom and the world outside and this predicament could be remedied by blended learning. The lecture concluded with the thought that 'Technology will never replace a great teacher, but technology in the hands of a great teacher can administer a positive change for the student fraternity.'

The Chief Guest addressing the audience