Tourism day celebration

The department of History, Loyola College, in collaboration with the Ministry of tourism, celebrated World Tourism Day on 27/09/19. Dr. D. Anuradha, Head of the department of History delivered the welcome address.

Respected Principal Rev. Dr. Thomas. A. S.J. felicitated the gathering. He thanked the Ministry of Tourism for collaborating with the College. Further, he highlighted the need and importance of travel and tourism in the 21st century.

Mr. Kuldeep Bhartee, Vice president of ITC Grand Chola, the chief guest of the program delivered his speech. He said that tourism provides many opportunities and, in fact, one in ten jobs in the world is from the tourism sector. He also said that it would take a lot of hard work and compassion to sustain in this field. Mr. Sanjay Srivatsav, Regional Director, India Tourism, Ministry of Tourism addressed the gathering. He said that richness or poverty has nothing to do with knowledge, and also said that all we need is determination.

The program was then followed by competitions like album making, mime and quiz where students from various colleges participated.

There was a cultural performance by LSSS and other folk artist team, which was performed for both shift I and shift II students.

Dr. Melchias Gabriel, Deputy Principal, Loyola College, presided over the valedictory and distributed prizes to the winners of the competitions.
