A Report on
“A One-Day Faculty Development Programme for Academic Staff -
School of Arts”
On
“AI-Powered Pedagogy to Transform Teaching-Learning,
Evaluation and Collaboration”
24th February 2024, Lawrence Sundaram Hall

The FDP organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Loyola College (Autonomous) Chennai, recognized the rapid evolution of AI and its profound implications for higher education. This FDP is designed to prepare faculty members for contemporary teaching methodologies, to enhance the intellectual and academic, collaborative environment in our institution. By focusing exclusively on “AI-Powered Pedagogy to Transform Teaching-Learning, Evaluation and Collaboration” the program aimed to provide participants with insights into the latest AI trends and practical applications in teaching and learning contexts.

Through this FDP Participants will gain insights into:

- (1) AI-powered teaching-learning tools
- (2) Reimagining assessment with AI
- (3) Ethical considerations and best practices for responsible AI use in education
- (4) Promoting collaboration for rigorous academic pursuits.

Session 1: AI Revolution in Higher Ed: Transforming the Learning Landscape.

Rev. Fr. Sabu Thomas, Asst. Professor of English, Sacred Heart College, Thevara Kochi, was the resource person for the first two sessions. The collective expertise of Fr. Sabu Thomas was shared with the participating academicians with a primary thrust on equipping and enabling them to explore the AI powered tools while focusing on enhancing functional area expertise for improving their classroom delivery

Session 2: 11.00 a.m. – 12.30 p.m Exploring AI- Enhanced Teaching-Learning and Evaluation: A Transformative Experience

Rev. Fr. Sabu Thomas, through interactive sessions and hands-on training encouraged faculty members to explore how AI-powered tools can provide solutions, enhance the learning experience, assessment methods, and collaborative opportunities within their classrooms. Participants were encouraged to develop a deeper understanding of AI applications in education, enabling them to integrate AI tools seamlessly into their lesson plans and assessments. Importantly, emphasis was placed on utilizing AI responsibly and ethically, ensuring that its integration into teaching practices aligned with ethical standards and educational goals.

Session 3: Cultivating a Collaborative Workplace

Mr. Nelson Victor, Corporate Team-Building Strategist, Consultant Trainer for Corporates, sought to foster a sense of community and teamwork among faculty members. An activity based session, the team building exercises not only keep faculty actively engaged but also enable them to nurture a culture of collaborative learning and sharing at the workplace—a vital aspect of professional development in an AI-driven educational landscape.
