The Faculty Development Programme commenced with a prayer and welcome address delivered by Prof. D Francis Xavier, IQAC Coordinator. This was followed by a felicitation by Rev. Dr A. Louis Arockiaraj, SJ, Principal of Loyola College. Dr Dorathy Pushparani, Assistant IQAC Coordinator, introduced the resource person for the session, Dr Shoba, Associate Professor from NITTTRC, Chennai – 34. The central session titled “AI in Education: Ethical Frontiers, Innovative Learning Solutions and Intellectual Property Rights” was then delivered by Dr Shoba. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr Amala Arockiaraj, LET Coordinator.

Introduction

The rapid evolution of Artificial Intelligence (AI) has reshaped the educational sphere, presenting a multitude of opportunities for automation and personalization of learning. At the same time, it has raised vital ethical and legal questions. The Faculty Development Programme (FDP) aimed to familiarize faculty members with the transformative applications of AI in education, especially in automating academic tasks like content generation and assessments, while also sensitizing them to the ethical challenges and intellectual property concerns associated with these technologies.

Objectives

- To discuss the ethical implications of AI in education, especially regarding fairness, transparency, and data privacy.
- To explore innovative, AI-driven solutions for educational automation and instructional enhancement.
- To understand the legal dimensions of AI-generated content through the lens of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR).

Session Highlights

Session I: “Ethics in AI: Navigating the Moral Landscape in Education”

Led by Dr. Shoba, the session focused on the moral implications of AI use in classrooms and educational institutions. Key discussion points included:

- Algorithmic bias and fairness in automated assessments.
- Responsible data management and privacy in AI systems.
- Need for transparency and accountability in AI tools.
- Formulation of ethical guidelines for AI adoption in teaching.

The session fostered critical reflection among educators on balancing technological advancement with human-centred educational values.

Session II: “Harnessing AI for Automated Learning: Question Banks, Notes, and Intellectual Property Rights”

This session was dedicated to the practical integration of AI in automating instructional materials and addressing IPR issues. Key insights included:

- Techniques for using AI tools to generate question banks, notes, and grading systems.
- Overview of IPR issues related to AI-generated content, with emphasis on copyright and ownership.
- Strategies for ensuring legal compliance and resolving disputes concerning AI-created educational materials.

Faculty members gained actionable knowledge to adopt AI tools in their pedagogy without compromising intellectual ownership or legal integrity.

Outcome

The Faculty Development Programme was successful in equipping participants with the necessary awareness, skills, and frameworks to responsibly integrate AI into their academic practices. Attendees expressed increased confidence in:

- Utilizing AI tools for instructional support and resource automation.
- Implementing ethical practices while working with AI technologies.
- Navigating the legal intricacies related to IPR in the context of AI-generated educational content.

The sessions were well-received, fostering a future-ready mind-set among faculty in alignment with evolving educational paradigms.
