Summary of the Activity	Hindi Diwas was celebrated at Loyola College on September 13, 2024, with a vibrant program in Beschi Hall. The event commemorated the adoption of Hindi as one of India's official languages and featured various cultural activities. Key Highlights: Opening Ceremony: The event began with a choir performance of a Hindi prayer song and the Tamil Thai Valthu, followed by a ceremonial lamp lighting by the Vice Principal and faculty. Welcoming Remarks: Dr. Beena Kumari Nair, Head of the Department, welcomed attendees and dignitaries. felicitation: Dr. Jeyamani Divya Christudoss, Vice Principal of Shift II, highlighted the significance of language as a communication medium. Guest Speaker: Dr. K. Priya Naidu spoke on “Bharatiya Sanskruti aur Naitik Moolya,” emphasizing the importance of Indian culture and moral values, concluding with the poem “Hindi hamara peyhachan.”

	Competitions and Awards: Results from competitions in pictorial depiction, slogan writing, and poetry were announced, with winners receiving mementos and certificates. Cultural Performances: The program featured a skit on gender equality and education, a musical performance by Rahul Morya, and Shayari recitations by first-year students. Closing Remarks: Dr. Mahalakshmi K expressed gratitude to the management and all contributors to the event's success, concluding with the National Anthem and a slogan of patriotism. This celebration not only honoured the Hindi language but also fostered cultural appreciation and unity among students.
Follow-up plan	Organize workshops on Hindi literature, poetry, and writing skills to engage students and faculty in learning and practicing the language. Plan regular cultural events, such as plays, music performances, and art exhibitions centered around Hindi literature and themes.
